

DONNA BASSIN
Leave No Soldier

A documentary made in the U.S.A. by Donna Bassin
Running time 71 minutes

Two journeys,
Two generations
Bringing each other home

Remembering their pledge to 'leave no fallen soldier behind," two groups of war veterans carry this oath from the battlefield to the home front as they advocate for their comrades and raise the nation's awareness of the aftershocks of war.

Donna Bassin, Ph.D., is a licensed psychologist, psychoanalyst, and professor at Pratt Institute, award-winning fine art photographer, and first-time documentary filmmaker. Donna has won a number of awards, including the Gradiva, for her contributions to mental health through the arts. In addition to having an active psychotherapy practice in New York City and publications in many professional journals, she currently exhibits her work in museums and galleries.