

ART ROBBINS

Playing with Energy and Form In Psychoanalytic Space

An experiential workshop focusing on non verbal communication between therapist and patient. A format will be presented to clarify such issues as rhythm and form, ground and center, and the utilization of psychic space to organize therapeutic communications. Participants will also work with body expression within a transference and counter-transference context. Issues of aloneness, separation, and contact anxiety will all be part of the inter-subjective mix.

Faculty: National Psychological Association for Psychoanalysis; Founding Director and Faculty for the Institute of Expressive Analysis; Honorary Life Member of the American Art Therapy Association; Founding Director of the Pratt Creative Arts Therapy Program; Author of numerous articles and six books in the area of non-verbal Expression and transference and counter-transference. Awards: NAAP; IFPE